

GIFTS

1. What kinds of gifts are popular in your country?

In my country, people like to give things like clothes, flowers, cakes, and sometimes money. On special days like birthdays or Tet, these gifts are very common.

2. What's the best gift you've ever received?

The best gift I got was a watch from my parents. It's simple but meaningful because they gave it to me when I finished high school.

3. Are you good at choosing gifts for other people?

Not really. I always feel confused about what people like. So, I usually ask them before buying something.

4. Do you like giving expensive gifts?

No, I don't think expensive gifts are necessary. I prefer something small but thoughtful, like handmade things or books.

DICTIONARIES

1. How often do you use your dictionary?

I use it almost every day because I study English. I usually check new words online when I read or write something.

2. Do you like paper dictionary or electronic dictionary?

I like electronic dictionaries because they are faster and easier to use. I can find meanings and examples very quickly.

3. How will dictionaries change in the future?

I think in the future, dictionaries will be smarter. Maybe they can speak or explain words in a more natural way, like a teacher.

4. How would you feel if someone gave you a dictionary as a gift?

I would feel happy, especially if it's a good one. It shows that the person cares about my study.

CONCENTRATION

1. Did you find it difficult to concentrate when you were a child?

Yes, I did. When I was small, I liked to play and I couldn't sit still for a long time.

2. Do you find it hard to concentrate now?

Sometimes yes. When I'm tired or when my phone keeps ringing, it's hard to focus.

3. When do you need to concentrate the most?

I need to concentrate the most when I study or do exams. At that time, I try to keep my mind clear.

4. What do you do to help you concentrate?

I turn off my phone, listen to soft music, and study in a quiet place. That helps me a lot.
